

Sun, Sand, and Science - Submit Your Research to Present at Echo Hawaii

Don't miss your chance to present your basic or clinical research in sunny Hawaii in January. ASE is now accepting abstracts for the 28th Annual Echo Hawaii meeting to be considered for poster presentation. Submission is free of charge, and presenting authors are eligible for a $100 discount off their conference registration. A "Best Poster Prize" will recognize the top work presented. Visit the Echo Hawaii Call for Science page for more information. Submission closes Wednesday, November 1.

Registration is Now Open for Echo Hawaii

It's not too early to register for Echo Hawaii. Register today, and see why attendees keep coming back to this course after almost three decades!

Take a look at the 28th Annual Echo Hawaii Advance Program and make plans to join us January 15-19, 2018 on the beautiful Kohala Coast at the Hapuna Beach Prince Hotel. Expert U.S. and international faculty will present the latest technologies with a particular focus on how they can be effectively applied in the clinical setting.
